

ABSTRACT

[0179] A camera array captures plural component images which are combined into a single scene. In one embodiment, each camera of the array is a fixed digital camera. The images from each camera are warped to a common coordinate system and the disparity between overlapping images is reduced using
5 disparity estimation techniques.

100277 " 8E968650